

Preventing Discrimination and Harassment Training: Construction Edition

Whether working in the office or on the jobsite, employees in the construction industry need to be aware of the behavior expected to support their organization's values and understand how local, state and federal laws prohibiting harassment, discrimination and retaliation apply in their day-to-day interactions.

EDUCATE | MOTIVATE | INFLUENCE

Traliant's award-winning Preventing Discrimination and Harassment in Construction interactive training shows employees and managers how to recognize and respond appropriately to harassment, discrimination, retaliation, and other misconduct they may encounter. The course focuses on positive behavior and decision-making through bite-sized episodes and interactive, live-action videos tailored for the construction industry.

The training is available in multiple languages and in separate versions for Employees and Managers, who have additional responsibilities to prevent and report workplace misconduct.
